ROUTED.

Official Dispatches Sent to Headquarters Say.

FIGHT FOR SEVEN HOURS.

THE INSURGENTS FLED BADLY DEFEATED AND DEMORALIZED.

tails of a fight in the Province of Santa Clara—Insurgents said to have been routed—Rebellion in a Jail—Three of the Prisoners Shot—Spanish Naval Officer Court-martialed.

MADRID, Oct. 16.—Official dispatches received here from Havana yesterday say that an important engagement has been fought at Linderos (Llanadas), in a Meneses district of the province of Santa Clara between a Spanish column commanded by Colonel Milan and the rebel insurgent forces, led by Terraz, Garrillo and Rodriguez. The thing is said to have lasted for seven hours, after which the enemy was dispersed but afterwards reformed at the Sierra Colorado, where the insurgents are completely routed, losing a number of killed and many wounded. On a Spanish side several soldiers were wounded.

Jail Outbreak.

HAVANA, Oct. 16.—A serious outbreak occurred in the jail of Santa Clara Monday. Before it was suppressed General aque had to send troops to the scene of the disturbance. Four of the ring-leaders of the riot were made prisoners, the soldiers, and when they subsequently tried to escape three of them were shot, but one of the captured ring-leaders succeeded in getting away.

Joined the Insurgents.

Twenty men have left the Los Abrens, the Cienfuegos district of the province of Santa Clara, in order to join the insurgents. Some laborers who have been at work on the Santa Rosalina plantation have also joined the insurgents. In addition, Adelfo Diaz, proprietor of the Diaz Sierra, in the province of Santa Clara, has gone over to the enemy after previously burning his house.

A large band of insurgents has been sighted at Bermeja, in the province of Matanzas.

Skirmishes.

There have been a number of additional skirmishes between the government troops and the insurgents during the past few days. At the Chubasco plantation, province of Santa Clara, the troops commanded by Colonel Hernandez had a brush with an insurgent force which left one killed and one man wounded on the field, as well as one prisoner in the hands of the troops before retreating with the rest of the insurgents wounded.

The troops had another skirmish with the enemy at San Juan de las Placetas as a result of which the latter left two killed on the field and the troops captured 30 saddle horses.

Under Arrest.

The naval officer who was in charge of the pilot boat Volo Mercante used by the Spaniards as a dispatch boat, and which was captured at Aserradero near Santiago de Cuba, has been court-martialed and is now under arrest on board the cruiser Reina Mercedes at Santiago de Cuba. No details have been obtained as to the penalty imposed upon him.

SITUATION PERILOUS.

Crete Threatens Rebellion in Favor of Annexation to Greece.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—A dispatch to The Times from Athens describing the growing discontent with Turkish rule on the island of Crete, says that a band of 1,000 armed Christians recently met at Klima to petition the sultan to restore the charter abolished in 1889 and for a reform of taxation and of the gendarmerie. The governor of Crete sent troops against the petitioners who withdrew to the mountain fastnesses whither the troops dare not follow. They now threaten to foment a rebellion in favor of annexation to Greece. The Greek government, fearing complications, has despatched such a Cretan movement, but the situation is perilous.

IN THE FIELD OF POLITICS.

Cleveland Chamber of Commerce Wants Shorter Presidential Campaign.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 16.—The Cleveland chamber of commerce last night adopted a resolution calling upon commercial bodies in other cities to move for a shorter presidential campaign next year. The preamble recites that much of the depression following the election of 1892 was due to the long campaign, and it is recommended that the conventions of the two great parties be held three months instead of six months before the election. A memorial to that effect will be sent to both the Democratic and Republican national committees.

Novel Grounds for Divorce.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 16.—Dr. Nannie A. Stevens, a local physician, has brought suit for divorce from Ralph Stevens, a well-to-do Wichita farmer, charging, among other things, that he "laid around and would not help her get the house in order."

A Son's Good Shot.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Oct. 16.—Near Richmond, D. county, Joseph Gashen attempted a criminal assault on Mrs. Holcomb, but the woman's 12-year-old son grabbed a shotgun and came to his mother's rescue, shooting her assailant dead.

WANT AN APPROPRIATION.

Lake and River Projects in Which the Northwest is Interested.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—President Livingston and Secretary Keep of the Lake Carriers' association have been here for several days in conference with Secretaries Lamont and Carlisle and General Craigbill, chief of engineers, relative to a number of important lake and river projects in which the entire northwest, and particularly the western men, are interested. Those include plans for a second canal at the St. Clair flats, which is one of the main arteries of lake commerce. It is proposed to double the capacity of the canal by having one for up traffic and the other for down.

Another project is to widen the Lima-kila crossings from 410 to 660 feet. This crossing is the hellgate of the lakes, and steam and sail vessels frequently go on the rocks owing to the narrowness of the cut.

It is also proposed to widen the Lake channel, which is the southerly waterway leading to the Sault Ste. Marie canal.

GHOST STORY.

Strange Occurrence Disturbs the Quits at Middleport Junction, O.

POMEROY, O., Oct. 16.—The few people who reside at Middleport Junction complain of a strange occurrence in that region which savors of the supernatural. On dark nights a light can be seen to appear suddenly at the edge of the Ohio river on the West Virginia shore, pause there for a short time and then begin slowly to ascend the hills on that side of the river until it reaches the summit, when it suddenly disappears. In the course of half an hour it will appear at the point where first seen and go over the same ground as at first. On a dark night it may be seen to do this for nearly a dozen times. The light can only be seen from the Ohio side.

EXPORTS AND IMPORTS.

The Figures Show That the United States Has Worst End of Trade.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The total exports for September were $58,543,443 against $58,798,075 for last year; for the first nine months of 1895 $557,980,816 against $578,618,275 for the corresponding period last year. The imports for September were $50,847,898 against $55,236,123 for September 1894; for the first nine months of 1895 $500,983,132, and for 1894 $503,590,042. For September 1895 the excess of imports was $4,692,680; for September 1894 the excess of exports was $4,150,977; for the first nine months of this year there was an excess of imports amounting to $43,032,976, and for the corresponding period of last year an excess of exports of $73,038,234.

NEVY BURGLARS.

Lost a Clothing Store Under Glaring Gaslights.

WAPAKONETA, O., Oct. 16.—Thieves gained entrance to the Fisher clothing store through a rear window and took almost $2,000 worth of custom-made clothing, piece goods, overcoats and underwear. They drove a wagon in the alley back of the building and carried the stuff to it, working all the while with a bright light in the room. Nothing but the best goods was taken, cheap, grades being thrown aside.

SHIP BURNED AT SEA.

Her Captain, Mate and Nineteen of Her Crew Missing.

VALPARAISO, Oct. 16.—The American ship Parthia, Captain Carter, from Liverpool on June 25 for San Francisco with coal, was burned at sea on Oct. 1. The Parthia proved a total loss. Several of her crew landed here in one of the ship's boats, but the captain, chief mate and 19 of her crew, who left the wreck in boats are still missing.

Almost Executed.

LONG PRAIRIE, Minn., Oct. 16.—Twelve years ago, while ill, Wickham Silvernail wandered away while delirious and was never again heard of until recently when he wrote from Indian territory saying he had just come to himself. The past was a blank until now and he did not know himself. He is coming home to his family.

A Wholesale Pardon.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Governor Altgeld pardoned a bunch of 112 girls from the Evanston Industrial school. The pardon applies to every prisoner in the school, and is the result of the unfavorable report made by a committee which investigated the institution. The girls range in age from 6 to 21 years.

Should Have Left the Dog at Home.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Oct. 16.—At a negro church near here John Winstead kicked a dog, and its owner, Enal Powell, remonstrated. Winstead began shooting, seriously wounding Powell and his wife. Several others had narrow escapes.

Bankers' Association Meets.

ATLANTA, Oct. 16.—The American Bankers' association began its session in the Grand Opera House Tuesday morning with an unusually large attendance of delegates and a liberal sprinkling of visitors and onlookers.

Called Out and Killed.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 16.—Eugene Vandy, a negro who lived one mile east of Manchester, was called out Monday night at 10 o'clock by a crowd of white men and shot to death. He was charged with keeping and abusing a half-witted white girl at his house.

Ready to Fight Spain.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—The sentiment for Cuban independence has spread to the ranks of the United States army and two of the regulars have written Mayor Swift asking for aid in raising companies to fight Spain.

JIM HID

And Would Not Let the People
even See Him.

CORBETT IS INTERVIEWED.

CONCERNING THE PROBABILITY OF A FIGHT BETWEEN HIMSELF AND FITZ.

The Champion Says That in His Present Condition He Feels Able to Vanquish Lanky Bob—Willing to Fight For Glory and the Fun of the Thing—Does Not Believe They Will Fight in Hot Springs.

TEXARKANA, Ark., Oct. 16.—Champion James J. Corbett passed through Texarkana yesterday afternoon en route to Hot Springs. About 300 people were at the depot to get a glimpse of the champion of the world. They were disappointed, however, as Corbett remained closed in the sleeper and did not show himself.

A reporter went in and, being personally acquainted with the champion, obtained an audience. Corbett looked like a gladiator, and says he feels able to vanquish Fitzsimmons without another day's training.

"I am disgusted with the business," he said. "I am losing valuable time and do not believe we will fight in Hot Springs. I am going there on orders, but I do not fancy the move."

The reporter asked him if he would fight Fitzsimmons privately and without a side purse.

"I'll fight him for fun. Fitzsimmons is doing a lot of blowing and is running a big bluff. He can easily afford to make wild statements. If we meet he has everything to gain and nothing to lose, while I have everything to lose and scarcely anything to gain. If the fight has to be pulled off in private I will be compelled to fight for glory and amusement. Fitzsimmons' $10,000 stake money has been attached and I have $10,000 deposited practically against nothing."

"How many rounds do you think it will take you to put Fitzsimmons to sleep?"

"I believe that Fitzsimmons is the best man that I ever ran against, but if you will only stop to think a moment, I never fought a man who gave the least trouble. Mr. Fitzsimmons may lick me, but if he does he will have accomplished a tremendous undertaking."

"Now, Corbett, on the dead, do you think for a moment that Fitzsimmons has any chance to win?"

"Candidly, I do not. I feel fully able to beat Lanky Bob, and if you have any money to bet on the result take my advice and place it on Jim Corbett."

Corbett's party consists of 14 people, including two ladies, his wife and Mrs. W. A. Brady.

CONVENTION OF SPIRITUALISTS.

Large Additions to Membership Made During Past Year.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The third annual convention of the National Spiritualists' association opened here yesterday and will continue three days. The annual report of President H. D. Barrett showed an addition of 65 per cent in membership during the year. It was also claimed that there are 125,000 bona fide spiritualists in the United States and 10 times that number interested in spiritual phenomena.

At the session last evening a national flag was presented to the convention and a "test" given Dr. G. C. B. Ewell.

GENDARMES CALLED OUT.

Mob of Servians and Croatians Dispersed With the Bayonet.

AGRA, Austria, Oct. 16.—Disorders have occurred here arising from the animosity existing between the Servians and the Croatians. The latter made an attempt to remove the Servian flags from various buildings and conflicts resulted. The gendarmes were obliged to disperse the mob with fixed bayonets. Besides being the capital of Croatia and Slavonia the city is a seat of various seminaries and gymnasia, and the student element forms a rather turbulent character of the population.

One Thousand Freightcars Ordered.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—There is a famine in freightcars on all railroad lines in this state, and many shippers who were holding off for lower freight rates are now offering premiums for cars. The iron industries are clamoring for better service, and the Pennsylvania Railroad company has just placed an order for 1,000 gondola freightcars.

Pleased With His Reception.

METZ, Oct. 16.—The newspapers here issued special editions announcing the arrival of the imperial party. Emperor William expressed to the governor of the imperial province, Prince Von Hohenlohe-Langenburg his great satisfaction at the enthusiastic character of the reception which the people had accorded him.

Still Burning.

HELENA, Mont., Oct. 16.—The fire which started in the Muir tunnel, on the Northern Pacific, a month ago, is burning almost as furiously as ever. Efforts to smother the flames by sealing the tunnel, and also with steam, have been unsuccessful. The trains are being transferred over the new track recently constructed over the mountains. The damage is very heavy.

REFORM

Is Demanded in Armenia by Other Powers.

ELSE TROUBLE WILL ENSUE

THE TURKS DO NOT FAVOR ACCED-ING TO THE DEMAND.

Russia Not Fully in Touch With the Other Powers—Prospect of Armenian Autonomy Does Not Altogether Suit Her Purposes—Muslims Again Attack Armenians—Panic Reviving.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The Chronicle's Constantinople advices say that M. Cambon, the French ambassador, M. Nelidoff, the Russian ambassador and Sir Philip Currie, the British ambassador, Monday presented to Said Pasha, the minister of foreign affairs, the final demands of the powers for Armenian reforms. If this is not accepted an ultimatum will be presented. No modifications will be permitted. The scheme drops the demand for a Christian high commissioner, but otherwise it is almost identical with the proposals of last May. It is believed, however, that Russia hesitates to enforce acceptance because she fears ultimate Armenian autonomy.

Slaughter of Armenians.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—A dispatch to The Daily News from Constantinople says: "Reliable news has been received here that 50 Armenians were killed and a number wounded at Akhisar in the vilayet of Adin on the Anatolian railway, by a Moslem mob. The slaughter occurred on October 9, which was market day, when many Armenians had gathered from adjacent villages."

"Early in the morning a Turkish rough, finding that the Armenians were not armed, picked a quarrel and shot one of the men. There was then raised on all sides the cry of 'Why hesitate to massacre the infidels!'"

"A mob of Turks, armed with revolvers and knives, then looted the market and massacred the helpless Armenians. Their bodies were thrown into the wells."

"It is stated that the mudir was responsible for the attack. No women or children were injured, probably on account of the arrival of Kamaikan from the village of Gieve, three miles distant, who made valiant efforts at the risk of his own life to save the Christians. Otherwise the slaughter would have been complete."

"The panic is reviving in Constantinople on account of the continued isolated attacks, and the Armenians are again flocking into the churches. The police disregard the safe conduct cards given to the Armenians by the foreign embassies and they insult and maltreat the holders of them."

LYNCHED OF COURSE.

Joe's Side Will Undoubtedly Be Fanned With Bullets.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 16.—Jeff Ellis, the negro rapist captured near Holly Springs, Miss., is now on his way back to Braden, Tenn., the scene of his crime, in custody of three officers.

He has confessed as to the offense, and also says he ravished and murdered Mrs. Wilcox of the same locality some time ago. In this case the woman's husband went crazy from the shock and died in an insane asylum.

Ellis adds that he tried to rape a young girl while escaping into Mississippi, but did not succeed. He will, almost certain, be lynched on arrival at Braden.

Don Will Meet Joe.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—It is announced that Dan Creedon, the ex-middleweight champion of Australia, who last night defeated Frank Craig, the "Harlem Coffee Cooler," for a purse of £400 before the National Sporting club, winning in 20 rounds, will shortly meet "Joe" Choyinski of California.

Suspicion of Foul Play.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Oct. 16.—Coroner Downey yesterday ordered the examination of the remains of Mrs. George Sloop, who died suddenly Oct. 5. A fracture of the skull was discovered, and a further examination will be held to determine if there was foul play.

Pursuing a Phantom.

MARTIN, Ind., Oct. 16.—The local heirs to the supposed fabulous wealth of Lord Antrim are beginning to realize the situation. They have been doing nothing so far but paying assessments, and now comes the information that the whole thing is a myth.

Woman Fatally Burned.

GALLIPOLIS, O., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Arthur Miller, living near Chester, while superintending the making of some apple butter, was horribly burned and died from her injuries yesterday.

Will Appeal the Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—The government's suit against the Stanford estate is to be appealed immediately to the United States supreme court by the government.

Business Houses Burned.

QUINCY, Ill., Oct. 16.—The business district of Lorraine, a village 20 miles northeast, was practically destroyed yesterday. Total loss, $40,000; no insurance.

Prevents Suffering

Dr. A. A. Chubb, a well-known physician and member of the Medical Association, Ohio, has found that many others, that Sarsaparilla, by keeping the blood pure, prevents as well as cures disease. He writes: "Sarsaparilla has a very cleansing place in our cupboard. I look to it for protection, for which I find it very useful, also for attack of the head and for a blood purifier, in fact for general health. It has proved highly successful. I could not get along without Sarsaparilla. We buy it in bulk, and myself and family take it whenever we do not feel very well." C. A. Sprague, McKinley, Ohio.

If you have green corn put a little in. —Evening World.

When is an editor? Some boys were asked the other day to define "editor." "More are some of their definitions: 'An editor is a man who handles words.' 'An editor makes his living out of the English language.' 'An editor is somebody who does not do anything himself, and when somebody else does good and tells other people all about it.' 'An editor is a man who has the industry of a beaver, the instincts of a bee and the patience of an ass.' —Book Buyer.

A Man of Many Parts.

During the June insurrection in 1848 a national guardman wrote as follows to a friend of his: "I am now writing to you with a saber in one hand and a pistol in the other." —Ecole de la Famille.

A Faithful Servant.

One night Prince Talleyrand was suddenly awakened by the firing of a pistol and seeing his valet walking about the room he asked him what he was doing. "There was a mouse in the room, your highness, and for fear it might disturb you I shot it." —Dis.

It is estimated that 1,200 tons of ostrich feathers have been exported from Cape Colony during the past 30 years, valued at $57.

Pneumatic Hat Making.

A felt hat is now made by a pneumatic process. A conical cup perforated with holes is provided. The air beneath is exhausted, while by a curious device the felt is forced evenly to all parts of the outside of the receiver, and by the strong pressure and rush of air, is thrown upon the frame and distributed, thus forming the basis for the hat.

No Receipt Necessary.

It is not an uncommon thing for a person paying a fine in a police court to demand a receipt, but it is seldom, if ever, given. Over in Waterbury the other day, when refusing a receipt, the clerk gave a fellow a reason which satisfied him at once. He told him that the fact that he was at liberty was sufficient proof to his friends that he had paid his fine. —Hartford Times.

Two tin cups of mashed potatoes, one scant cup of lard, one cup of yeast, one half cup of sugar; knead very stiff; if they are to be baked for breakfast they must be put in pans the night before; cut about one inch thick. In cool weather they can be kept for several days by working them down each day, which improves them. —Evening World.

Advantages of an Artificial Larynx.

A Melbourne paper announces that Prof. Anderson Stuart, professor of surgery at the university of Sydney, has constructed an artificial larynx which he introduced into the throat of a man who had lost his larynx in the operation of a cancerous growth. It is a complete success; by changing certain tubes it is even possible to provide for an alteration of the register of the voice so that the man with this artificial throat can speak as well as sing, with soprano, tenor or bass voice.

The republican tax dodgers and the Republican-Gazette are not in favor of Gus Lutz, the laboring man, for county treasurer. These kid-glove gentlemen can smell a mechanic through a 12 inch wall.

LIMA'S ENORMOUS TAXES.

Lima pays nearly 50 per cent. of all tax collected in Allen county. Her relative percentage of the property on the duplicate is disproportionate with the amount of tax paid because of the excessive taxes levied in this city for frills put on by the Republican Ring.

REPUBLICAN RING AGAINST THE WORKING MAN.

The Lima Gazette and the Republican Ring are attempting to make a fight against Gus Lutz for treasurer because he is a poor man. They say that Mr. Standish is "an accomplished scholar," and should have the position of Mr. Lutz because the latter is only a working man. Mr. Lutz is a working man and is proud of the fact. In his life he has worked hard and has acquired a home and a small start in the world.

The fact that he is a working man will not militate against him when election day comes for on that day the thousands of other working men throughout Lima and Allen County, who know that Lutz's sympathies are with them, will give him their hearty support.

The Republican Ring by its insinuations against Mr. Lutz because he is a working man, practically says to the laboring classes, that they regard them as good enough to vote and place kid-glove autocratic Republicans who are "accomplished scholars" into office but that they should not be given a chance to draw the salaries themselves.

HIGH TAXES IN REPUBLICAN TOWNSHIPS.

The heaviest tax levied in any township in Allen is in the Republican stronghold of Anguila township, where the taxpayers are asked to walk up and pay a tax of 19 cents on each $100 of property they own in it. Comparison of the taxes paid in the different townships may be made from the following table showing the amount in cents on each $100:

Anguila township—Republican—19 cents;	Richland township—Democratic—15.7 cents;
Monroe township—Democratic—15.3 cents;	Sugar Creek township—Republican—16 cents;
Marion township—Republican—17.5 cents;	Spencer township—Democratic—15.9 cents;
Amanda township—Populist—16 cents;	German township—Democratic—15.3 cents;
Bath township—Democratic—13 cents;	Jackson township—Democratic—17.6 cents;
Perry township—Democratic—13.4 cents;	Shawnee township—Democratic—13 cents.

Taxpayers paste this in your hat, and if you want low taxes and honest administration of affairs, help elect the entire Democratic ticket this fall.

GOOD GOVERNMENT—SEE CAMBRIIDGE.

Cost the good people of Ohio during the rule of McKimley, Foraker and Cox, the sum of $220,000 for every section of land in Ohio.

Good government in Ohio by the last General Assembly of Ohio, McKimley and Republican good management, raised the expense of the state of Ohio to each tax payer and laborer the enormous sum of $9.65.

All the voter wants in Ohio is another General Assembly in this State. At the rate of increase by the last Assembly it takes one month's earnings to pay his portion of State expenditures.

Voters, see that you put your ballots in the box early and put a seal of condemnation on such extravagance.

REPUBLICAN RULE MEANS HIGH TAXES.

The best proof of what results the policy of any political organization has done when given an opportunity. In Lima under Republican Ring rule the taxes have ruled high, enormously high. The bonded indebtedness of this city has been increased and the floating indebtedness has grown until it is a veritable mountain. The interest paid under their dictation by the tax payers of Lima will annually amount to three times enough to pay the entire county debt. The policy of the Republican party in the townships which they control in Allen County has been precisely the same, Anguila township, the banner Republican township in the county, being the most heavily taxed township in the county. In this Republican stronghold the tax rate amounts to 19 cents on each $100, while the two strongly Democratic townships of Bath and Shawnee only have a levy of 13 cents on each $100, nearly one-third less. If the Ring should manage to get full control of the affairs of Allen county the rate of taxation would immediately begin creeping upward in a proportionate degree until the entire county would groan beneath its burden of taxation.

LET US SEE THE RING'S BOOKS.

The present city clerk, who a few weeks was posing before the public as an infallible expert official, admits now that he did make a "clerical error," and did get on the wrong line, and did certify to the auditor as unpaid the taxes that he had received. How many more similar blunders have been made while the present Ring have had control of the city's business? Let the books and transactions of this Ring be closely scrutinized before they can be regarded as worthy to be entrusted with the county funds. We do not want to pay double tax in both city and county.

HOW THE RING WOULD WORK IT.

The same Ring that controls the city affairs, under which a man is asked to walk up and pay double tax, is trying to get control of the county affairs, when they would doubtless ask taxpayers to walk up to the rack and pay their county tax twice.

DOUBLE TAXATION IN LIMA.

The voters of Lima and Allen county do not like the system of double taxation imposed by the Republican Ring of Lima, by which a taxpayer, after paying his legitimate assessment, is asked to again walk up and pay his tax a second time.

THE COXEY-REPUBLICAN GAME.

There is no longer the slightest room to doubt that J. S. Coxe and the Republican State Executive Committee have formed an alliance and are working together to secure the success of the Boss George B. Coxe gang in the selection of Bushnell for Governor, and another gang Legislature.

A few days ago Coxe was billed to speak at Milo, a suburb of Columbus. On his way there he quietly slipped into the city of Columbus and visited the Republican State headquarters and was closeted with the Republican managers for two or three hours.

The terms of the alliance are, of course, unknown, but that it was entered into is evident, for within forty-eight hours after this conference $2,300 was sent into Hocking county to aid in recruiting the Coxe forces from the Democratic ranks.

The plan is a shrewd one. The money was sent into the townships and placed in the hands of a few selected Republicans who at once professed conversion to Coxe, and set out to induce their Democratic neighbors to join with them.

The same thing is being done in all the Democratic counties, the belief being that the professions of these Republican hoodlums will have the effect of inducing Democrats to throw away their votes on Coxe while the Republicans will, notwithstanding their pretensions, vote the straight Republican ticket.

No intelligent Democrat should permit himself to be deceived by such a transparent fraud.

Another trick, concocted at the Republican headquarters at Columbus, to make Coxe appear in the role of a martyr, was carried out the other evening in the town of Cambridge.

Coxey went there unannounced and getting on a store box began to make a speech to a crowd that gathered around him. The Republican marshal of the town put in an appearance and ordered him to quit speaking. He refused and the marshal pulled him off the box and broke up the meeting.

The next morning all the Republican papers announced the "Democratic outrage" and laid it to the Democratic party. The whole thing was a trick and a fraud arranged between Coxe and the Republican party.

The real and avowed principles of the Populist party are wholly different from the doctrines and foolish vagaries put forth by Coxe, to the disgust of the intelligent men in the party, and it is hard to understand how any Populist can vote for him, especially when it is clear that he is acting as the stool-pigeon of George B. Coxe and his campaign expenses are being paid by the Republican Committee.

WHY THAT REPORT WAS SUP- PRESSED.

Was it because of the knowledge of the existence of many errors on the city books, such as failure to give credit to people who had paid their city tax to the city clerk, "getting on the wrong line," placing credits of a man who had paid his taxes to a man who had not paid, that induced the Republican Ring in Lima to prevent the publication in the newspapers of the financial transactions of the city last spring? It begins to look suspicious, doesn't it? And yet the Ring has the temerity to ask to be entrusted with the county business, so that they may do some of the peculiar book-keeping on the county books. But the taxpayers will have none of it.

DEMOCRATIC ECONOMY.

While the Republican Ring of Lima, in conjuring up some way in which they might extort more money from the taxpayers, this year increased most of their levies for different purposes and even added a few new items to the already large list, the Democratic Board of Commissioners this year reduced the levy 14 cents on each $100, making a gross reduction on the tax to be collected of about $25,000. It does not require much fine calculation to determine which is the party of retrenchment.

MEXICAN NEWS NOTES.

Coronation of the Virgin Alleged to Be a Political Movement.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 16.—Editor Mata, in The Home Journal, alleges the coronation of the Virgin was entirely a political movement and engineered by an astute clergy as a monarchical and reactionary demonstration. The humble classes of society were expelled during the coronation ceremonies, while the aristocracy, always the allies of monarchy, were treated with every consideration. Much comment is excited in religious circles over these attacks. The charge is sustained also by Catholic Editor Terrazas, who says the poor class and the Indians were practically excluded from the church at Guadalupe so as to give room to rich people. Terrazas himself admits that the Virgin of Guadalupe is a political symbol, flag, but Terrazas is snubbed by the higher clergy. Archbishop Corrigan of New York expresses the hope that the Virgin of Guadalupe will become the patroness of the entire American continent.

Slight Shocks of earthquakes have been felt at Acapulco.

TRUTH'S OPINION

Publication of Backville Pamphlet Not Intended to Drive Bayard Out.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—Truth says that the statement that the Backville pamphlet was intended to drive the United States ambassador, Mr. Thomas F. Bayard, from London is absolute nonsense, and adds: "Anybody acquainted with the diplomatic service will be highly amused to hear that even a combination of all the members of the service concerned could effect in the very slightest the position of a foreign ambassador in London. It can not be denied, however, that Mr. Bayard availed himself of Lord Sackville's injudicious act to excite an anti-English agitation to assist the candidacy of Mr. Cleveland, and therefore it reflects great honor upon England that our government has been so dignified and magnanimous as to welcome as it has Mr. Bayard as an ambassador."

Several weddings will occur at St. Rose's church Thanksgiving week.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. George Hall celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at their home, 531 west Main street, in an elaborate and pleasant manner.

About sixty guests were present and the celebration was made a delightful and memorable event. The banquet was complete in every way and was enjoyed between 10 and 11 o'clock. Music was furnished by the Manhattan Mandolin club, and the guests were royally entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall received many beautiful and costly presents.

Among the guests from abroad were:

Dr. and Mrs. Johnston, of Harrod; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hackedorn, of Indianapolis; Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Neville, of Roundhead, and W. G. Fee and A. C. Thomas, Indianapolis.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Miss Wava Roberts and Mr. Teddy Whiteman, to occur on next Wednesday evening at her home on west Spring street.

Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock Mr. Jacob B. Huffman, of the firm Huffman Bros., who conduct a barber shop at Main and Vine streets, and Miss Ada, daughter of D. A. Ream, were united in wedlock.

Mr. and Mrs. Huffman will go to housekeeping on the south side.

At the home of Mrs. R. T. Hughes, 562 west Spring street, this evening at 8:30 o'clock, will occur the marriage of her youngest daughter, Miss C. Lenore, to Mr. Howard Gray, of the Lima Natural Gas office.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. C. B. Crawford, of Christ church, in the presence of the relatives and immediate friends only. They will dispense with a wedding trip and for the present make their home with Mrs. Hughes.

Mrs. Gray, of Bradford, arrived yesterday afternoon to witness the marriage.

OIL AND GAS.

INTERESTING WELL.

Goodkind has located a well between this city and Spencerville, and drilling will be watched with much interest by the oil men as the territory there was condemned long ago.

TEN BARRELS.

Beiman, Watson & Co., have completed their first well on the Harbett farm in section 24 in Spencer township. It is good for about ten barrels.

ACTIVE AT SPENCERVILLE.

One of the active oil fields of Ohio to-day is the Spencerville field, says a dispatch from that town. It is branching out rapidly, and some good producers are being developed, which are a direct benefit to both Delphos and this town. Less than two years ago the trade had but little faith in this field, and you could not induce an operator to touch the productive bundle of territory. At the present time the surrounding territory is considered very valuable, and the trade is working it rapidly. The field proper lies west and northwest of town, with an outlook for an extensive field to the north and northeast, as well as the east, as oil has been found in nearly every instance in the early day when a test was put down. John Black has completed his well on the Burnett farm, in section 29, Jennings township, Van Wert county, and it is virtually a failure.

DIG GUSHER.

The Sun Oil company drilled in a well on the J. H. Baker farm, one and one-half miles southeast of Rising Sun, Saturday, which is a hummer. It flowed furiously Saturday afternoon and thousands of barrels of oil went to waste. Tanks were built by Sunday morning, and three 250 barrel tanks filled in a short time. The well is doing at least 5,000 barrels a day and one-half of it is going to waste. Boilers are being set to "donkey" the oil away. Great excitement is caused by the strike.

THE BUCKEYE REPORT.

The daily average runs of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company, according to the report for September for the Ohio and Indiana fields, were 59,288 barrels, which is a gain of 2,767 barrels a day over August. The daily average runs of this company since the first of the year have been as follows: August, 56,521 barrels; July, 55,288 barrels; June, 51,378 barrels; May, 49,709 barrels; April, 46,847 barrels; March, 41,656 barrels; February, 36,764 barrels; January, 39,156 barrels. The gain since January is over 20,000 barrels a day.

The shipments of the same company for September were 48,421 barrels a day, an increase of 6,534 barrels over the month preceding. The excess of the runs over the shipments were 10,867 barrels a day in September, while in August they were 14,365, and in July 13,287 barrels. The August shipments were 41,887 barrels a day, and the July, 42,019. The June shipments were 42,654 barrels a day, a gain of 655 barrels on those of May. The May shipments averaged but 38,099 barrels a day, and was the lowest recorded in seven months. The April shipments averaged 40,206 barrels a day. The shipments for March were 45,476 barrels a day. The February shipments averaged 46,060 barrels, and the January 47,640 barrels a day.

INSULTING TALK

Caused Dr. Dematius to be Arrested Last Night.

Last evening Mrs. Minnie Caddy appeared before the mayor and signed an affidavit in which she charged Dr. Dematius with unlawfully and maliciously using and uttering false and malicious libel concerning her.

Dr. Dematius is the individual who has been delivering free lectures in an empty business room on north Main street. Mrs. Caddy claims that while she and fifteen or twenty other ladies were listening to one of his lectures yesterday afternoon, he made use of very ungentlemanly language, and that when she started to leave the room he insulted her in a libelous manner.

The man was arraigned before the mayor upon the charge and he pleaded not guilty, but was very anxious to settle the matter, and offered to apologize to Mrs. Caddy.

The case was set for hearing at 2 o'clock this afternoon and the defendant was released until that time.

HE KNEW OLD ABE.

Senator Sherman's Eulogy of Lincoln During His Campaign for Re-election.

Senator Sherman of Ohio in a speech at Sandusky, during the campaign for Lincoln's re-election, in the fall of 1864, drew this rough but accurate outline of the lamented president's character:

"I know Old Abe, and I tell you there is not, at this hour, a more patriotic or a truer man living than that man, Abraham Lincoln. Some say he is an imbecile, but he not only held his own in his debate with Douglas, whose power is admitted, and whom I consider the ablest intellect in the United States senate, but got a little the better of him. He has been deliberate and slow, but when he puts his foot down it is with the determination and certainty with which our generals take their steps; and, like them, when he takes a city he never gives up. This firm old man is noble and kind hearted. He is a child of the people. Go to him with a story of woe, and he will weep like a child. This man, so condemned, works more hours than any other president that ever occupied the chair. His solicitude for the public welfare is never ceasing. I differed from him at first myself, but at last felt and believed that he was right, and shall vote for this brave, true, patriotic, kind hearted man. All his faults and mistakes you have seen. All his virtues you can never know. His patience in labor is wonderful. He works far harder than any man in Erie county. At the head of this great nation—look at it! He has all the bills to sign passed by congress. No one can be appointed to any office without his approval. No one can be punished without the judgment receives his signature, and no one pardoned without his hand. This man—always right, always just—we propose to re-elect now to the presidency."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Poor Man Standing Up For His Rights.

Of course there was a time—and not so very long ago—when men were tyrants and kept women under. Nowadays the only thing denied them in polite circles is to whisk around by themselves after dark, and plenty of them do that. The law is giving them, with both hands, almost everything they ask for nearly as rapidly as existing inequalities are pointed out, and the right of suffrage is withheld from them only because the majority of women are still averse to exercising it.

Man, the tyrant and highwayman, has thrown up his arms and is allowing woman to pick his pockets. He is not willing to have her bore a hole in his upper lip and drag him behind her with a rope, but he is disposed to consent to any reasonable legislative changes which she desires to have made, short of those which would involve masculine disfigurement or depreciation.—Scribner's.

Marriages of College Women.

Under 25 years old college women rarely marry. Of 277 graduates of the latest three classes but 10 are married. If these youngest classes are left out of account, so that we consider only women who have passed 25, we find 32.7 per cent married. After the age of 30 is passed, 43.7; after 35, the rate becomes 49.7, while of those who have passed 40 years 64.5 per cent are married. The census tables do not fix exactly the general marriage rate for women of this age, but it is not far from 30 per cent. The ultimate probability of a college woman's marriage, therefore, seems to be below 55 per cent against 90 per cent for other women—not quite two-thirds as great.—The Marriage Rate of College Women, by Millicent Washburn Shum, in Century.

HOW THEY DAIRY IN DENMARK.

Perhaps Here is Revealed Why Danish Butter is Preferred.

The Jutland cows are said to give a yearly average of 4,000 pounds of 500 gallons of milk per cow, this being about the average of the gray brown Allgäu cows of Bavaria, one of the best milking breeds known in Europe. The Allgäu cows give richer milk than the Jutland animals, for in Bavaria it is estimated that 19 to 21 parts of milk will produce a pound of butter, while in Denmark the estimate is that 24 to 25 parts are necessary.

From the dairy book on the farm I found that the total quantity of milk received in 52 weeks was 163,549 pounds, or an average of 3,634 pints per cow for the year. Autumn calving, so as to produce winter butter, is the general custom, and the dairy book showed that while 100 pounds of milk was obtained in October the quantity obtained in December was 11,043 pounds, rising in January to 14,450 pounds and in February to 15,246 pounds. It is generally assumed that all the dairy factories in Denmark are worked on the co-operative principle, but such is not the case on the east coast of Jutland. The dairy factory I daily visited during my stay had been built by a "dairyist," who erected the buildings and fitted in the plant after he had got the promised support of four large proprietors and farmers, and the terms of agreement are simple. They promise, should the factory be erected and in working order by a given date, to supply it with milk from that date onward and agree to give their cows about a pound of rape cake a day, and when feeding turnips to give a pound of cake, grain, etc., for every five pounds of turnips used, the milk to be delivered early every morning—the evening's milk is kept overnight on the farm—and the factory to return 90 per cent of the milk delivered as separated or skim-milk.

The proprietor of the dairy agrees to give about 1/4d. above the maximum figure quoted by the Copenhagen committee for every 25 pounds of milk delivered, and to deduct three-fourths of an ore per pound for the separated milk returned. Milk in Denmark is always paid for by weight and not by measure, and the payment, as above, is based on butter rates, 25 pounds of milk being taken as equal to a pound of butter. The market price of Danish butter is fixed by a committee at Copenhagen, consisting of eight members. They meet every Thursday and fix the wholesale price for the ensuing week. Their quotations are official, and on their figures the whole trade in butter and milk depends.

The milk, on reaching the factory, is put into a zinc receptacle and weighed. It is then run into another receptacle, about three feet lower, from which, by a steam centrifugal pump, it is lifted to a tank on a raised platform, and from which it runs by gravitation first to a heater and then, after passing the heater, to two steam centrifugal separators. Between the separators there is a tank, into which the separated milk flows, while the cream is received into cans. Another steam centrifugal pump takes the milk up to the level of the receiving platform, and if it is wanted for skimmilk cheese or household purposes runs straight to a tank near receiving door, from which the wagoner can fill up his cans again. If the separated milk is only required for feeding pigs and stock, the milk is shut off from this tank and turns into a heater, where it is boiled, and then passes through a cooler to a separate tank, from which the farmer's cans can also be filled.—Farming World.

Dairy and Creamery.

When the dealers in weakened and adulterated milk and cream are driven out of the big cities, as is now being done in New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, they generally try to work off their impure goods on the suburban residents, where there is no law to catch them. Suburban residents must look out for themselves whenever a crusade against bad milk is inaugurated in a city, therefore.

Dr. D. E. Salmon of the United States bureau of animal industry reports to Secretary Morton that the Norman cattle of France are excellent for milk and butter as well as for beef, but that they are afflicted with pleuropneumonia, and that it will not at present be safe to import them into America.

The farmers' institute season has already opened. That farmer who is too busy to attend such meetings is too busy to be profitable to himself. Go and see that a good part of the time is allotted to matters connected with the dairy. The vast possibilities of the cow are only as yet seen through a glass darkly in this country.

City people are finding every year more and more that nothing agrees with them like eggs, milk, cream and butter when all of these are fresh and first class. Now, when meat is so high priced, farmers should strain every nerve to improve and market dairy products. They will make money by it.

At the agricultural fairs the dairy bull with four or more heifers of his get is becoming a popular feature, as he ought to do. There is no better test of the excellence of a dairy sire. The heifers need not necessarily all belong to one owner.

Every dairyman wants to get the bulletin lately issued by the United States agricultural department on the subject of dairy bacteriology. It is by Professor H. W. Conn, the discoverer of the Jane butter flavor bacillus. The present paper is supplementary to bulletin No. 9 by the same author. It is only necessary to write to the dairy division of the department of agriculture, Washington, to get the paper on dairy bacteriology.

THE WITCH WIFE'S CHARMS.

As I came down the building lane, The birds were singing free, The wind came along an old witch wife, And softly cooed to me.

"Oh, buy a charm, young maid!" she said, "Oh, buy a charm of me, To charm the evil spirits to thy side, Though he is on the sea."

"I will not do it, dame," I said, "If false at heart he be, I'd rather have a charm to keep His face afar from me!"

"Oh, buy a charm, young maid!" she said, "Oh, buy a charm of me, To break the curse of foes of thine, Who might work ill to thee."

"I will not do it, dame," I said, "If foul of heart they be, A deeper curse is laid on them Than ought they lay on me."

"Oh, buy a charm, young maid!" she said, "A potent charm of mine, To bind the strong heart of thy friend In love and loyalty."

"I will not do it, dame!" I laughed, "The charm could never be, Could make or break the chain that binds My friend's strong heart to me!"

THE CHURCH OF ST. SOPHIA.

It stands as the masterpiece of Byzantine Architecture and Construction.

Materials were brought from far and near, Egypt and Greece uniting with Asia Minor and the islands, each contributing to the capital, in supplying the quota of marble for the columns and walls of the church of St. Sophia. For nearly six years the work went on with unabated energy. Many difficulties were overcome and many experiments were tried and found successful, and at length, on the 26th of December, 537, the church was dedicated amid the acclamations of the populace, and the emperor exclaimed in the fullness of his pride: "Glory be to God, who hath thought me worthy to accomplish so great a work. I have vanquished thee, O Solomon!"

The emperor's joy in his church was, however, destined to receive a rude shock some 20 years later, when the apex and part of the dome were thrown down by an earthquake, but the same energy which was shown in the building of the church again asserted itself. The damage was repaired—the dome being heightened 20 feet to give it additional security—and the church was consecrated on the 24th of December, 563, 5½ years after the disaster.

The church of St. Sophia has never been surpassed in the unity and completeness of its design and in the daring nature of its construction. In this building the arch and dome assert themselves and dominate everything, and we have a lightness, a spaciousness and a grandeur that had never been reached in the finest of the basilicas and has never been surpassed since. During all the centuries which have elapsed since its erection, it has maintained its supremacy as the masterpiece of Byzantine architecture and construction, and it fixed generally the type on which most of the later churches in the east were based, but it has never been surpassed by any of them.—Scottish Review.

Hints to Book Canvassers.

A good story is told of one of the canvassers of a leading publishing firm in London. He found his way into the parlor of a branch bank, and saw the manager, who, as soon as he learned his business, ordered him out. Very quietly he said:

"I meet with so many gentlemen in the course of the week that I can afford to meet a snob occasionally," and took his departure.

Next day he called at the bank again, and wished to open an account. He was again shown in to the manager, and gave very satisfactory reasons for opening the account, and deposited £270. The manager could not do less than apologize for his rudeness on the day preceding, and ordered a copy of the work, an expensive one, and allowed access to the clerks, several of whom did the same. Two days afterward every farthing was drawn out.—London Tit-Bits.

Sitting Bull as a General.

"Do you know," said an army officer, "that if Sitting Bull, the old Sioux chief, had been a white man, he would have been called a great general? In fact, he was a great general soldier—a sort of red Napoleon."

"Sitting Bull was not a real chief; that is, he wasn't a war chief. He was a medicine man, what the Indians call a medicine chief. But he had great natural capacity as a commander. His surprise and cutting off of Custer would have been called a great achievement if a white general had in some way performed the feat. It is significant of Indian character that Sitting Bull would never tell the story of the fight at all; wouldn't say a word about it, although I suppose the question was put to him a thousand times by all sorts of people."—Washington Post.

A MOTHER'S DUTY
TOWARDS HER DAUGHTERS.

Suggestions Which Bear Repeating, as Their Importance is Immense.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Only a few years ago even the medical profession scouted the idea that young girls could suffer from the misery of uterine troubles.

That form of disease, it was claimed, came only to married women.

When Lydia E. Pinkham first sent out the news of her great discovery, there was no lack of harsh speech from those whose practice and opinions she set at defiance.

But when young girls by the hundreds were absolutely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, then the tongues of the traducers were stilled, and faith was allowed to live in the hearts of the people.

Young girls are subject to this trouble. It robs them of the buoyancy of youth. It makes all effort distasteful.

It causes retention and suppression of menses, leucorrhoea, severe headache, watery complexion, depression, weakness, loss of appetite and interest.

Certainly mothers ought to know that these are all symptoms of the one cause of nearly all the suffering that comes to women; and to save their daughters ought to begin treatment at once.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the surest and most natural remedy for women ever compounded. It will accomplish its work with certainty.

EGG HATCHING IN EGYPT.

A Method of Incubation Which is as Old as the Christian Era.

Among the follies of modern Egypt a process of incubation is in use which has been handed down from antiquity, perhaps from the time of Dioscorus, who, 40 years before the Christian era, said that the Egyptians brought eggs to maturity with their own hands and that the chickens hatched thus were not inferior to those hatched in the usual way. The process is described in Nature.

Ovens are built, consisting of a chamber about 11 feet square and 4 feet high, with a flat roof. Above this another chamber, 9 feet high, it built, with a vaulted roof, having a small opening in the middle to admit light. Below a larger opening communicates with the room underneath. In cold weather both rooms are kept closed and a lamp is left burning in each, entrance then being through the lower chamber.

When the oven is ready, the proprietor goes to the neighboring villages and collects eggs. They are placed on mats, strewn with bran, in the lower chamber. Fires are then lighted in troughs along the sides of the upper room, the eggs being in two lines immediately below. The fires are lighted twice a day, the first dying out at noon and the other burning from 3 to 5 in the evening. The first batch of eggs is left for half a day in the warmest place and then it makes way for the next, until all have been warmed. This process is kept up for six days, when the eggs are examined carefully in a strong light. Those that are clear are cast aside. Those that are cloudy are put back in the oven for another four days. They are then removed for five days to another chamber, where there are no fires, but the air is excluded. After this they are placed an inch or two apart and continually turned, this last stage taking six or seven days.

The eggs are examined constantly by being held against the upper eyelid to reveal if they are warmer than the human skin. The whole process lasts 21 days, but the thin shelled eggs often hatch in 18. The heat required is 86 F. Excessive heat is undesirable.

Gilded Gold.

"It takes Chicago to reach the limit of refined elegance. I mean elegance as Chicago knows it. Here's an illustration of it on my watch chain, and I value it as much as a wild westernism as I do for its personal associations." The speaker held up a gold coin about the size of a $5 goldpiece, fastened to his watch chain by a small eye. It bore the stamp of the South African republic and was glarily bright. "A friend of mine, who has traveled much in Africa, brought home a dozen of these to give to his friends as souvenirs," he continued. "The coins were of a rather deep red hue originally, and just as pure gold as is practicable for continual use. My friend had occasion to go to Chicago on his return from Africa and found himself compelled to pass a fortnight there before coming back to civilization. He took the coins to a prominent Chicago jeweler with orders to affix on each an eye. 'All right, sir,' said the jeweler. 'We'll fix 'em up in good style.' A few days later my friend stopped in for the coins. They were returned to him, fixed as he had ordered them, and a little more. 'I thought they looked a bit dull and wouldn't be the worse for brightening up a bit,' explained the jeweler. 'You'll find they look more jolly now.' And they did, for he had gilded every one."—Boston Gazette.

A TALK ABOUT METALS AND MINERALS

Something About Their Differences. Characteristics of the Various.

Professor Skidmore of Philadelphia, in a course of lectures has recently delivered a series of lectures on the subject of metals and minerals. In the course of his lecture he made some interesting remarks in regard to the distinction between minerals and metals. It is not possible, he observed, to define exactly what a metal is, yet there is little liability of mistake in distinguishing a metal from a non-metal. The metallic properties of luster, toughness, fusibility, opaqueness, conductivity and malleability are possessed separately by non-metals, but they are not associated as they are with metals. Most metals may be bent, twisted, drawn and hammered to an extent far beyond what any mineral not a metal could endure.

Taking up the matter of the rates of different metals, he showed by a series of interesting experiments that sodium, potassium, lithium and, in a lesser degree, calcium, strontium and barium rust instantly when exposed to moist air, their white rusts quickly dissolving in water and forming alkalis. Other experiments demonstrated the fact that another group of metals, in which are zinc, lead, magnesium and antimony, have white rusts which are not soluble in water. These rusts form a thin adherent coating, which only half conceals the metal and gives to it a dull, tarnished appearance. It was shown that at higher temperatures than the ordinary, and especially if the metals are finely divided, the chemical energy of rusting is so great that the metals burn with a vivid light and emit a dense white smoke. The permanency of these rusts and their protective character are utilized in white paints.

Professor Skidmore then directed attention to a third group of metals, which includes those which have dark or colored rusts, as with copper, iron and silver. A series of experiments followed to show how these rusts were formed, and the changes which iron undergoes in appearance in the tempering process were carefully noted. Attention was directed finally to the fourth group of metals, which never rust. These are gold and platinum, and it was noted that they are also the metals which are found as metals in the earth, and not as ores from which the metal must be manufactured. In the case of the other metals, it is an advantage that they are found in the rust or ore condition, as they can be manufactured much more easily than they could be cut from ledges of the pure metal.—Iron Age.

The Man in the Iron Mask.

The registry of the Bastille contains the entry: "On Thursday, Sept. 18, 1699, at 8 o'clock in the afternoon, M. de Saint-Mars, governor of the castle of the Bastille, arrived to take up his duties, coming from his post at the Isles Sainte Marguerite, and having brought with him in his litter a former prisoner, whom he had in his custody at Pignerol. The latter he keeps invariably masked, and his name is never mentioned." M. de Saint-Mars, in the years in question, had only five prisoners in his charge at Pignerol. The fate of four has been clearly traced. The fifth must be Mattioli. The prisoner died in 1708, and was buried on Nov. 30 in the cemetery of St. Paul. M. Bertrand of the French foreign office has examined the registry of burials and finds the name Mattioli under that date. Louis XV told M. de Saint-Mars, the prisoner was an Italian minister.

Louis XVI assured Marie Antoinette, on the authority of Maurepas, that the man was a dangerous intriguer, a subject of the Duke of Mantua, who had been arrested at the frontier and imprisoned first at Pignerol and then in the Bastille. The evidence seems conclusive, and puts an end to all other theories, including Voltaire's bold invention that the man in the iron mask was a supposed brother of Louis XVI, which Dumas has taken up and immortalized in his "Three Guardsmen" romances. Mattioli's crime was giving information to Austria, Spain, Savoy and Venice of negotiations into which Louis XVI had entered with him to induce him to sell the important fortress of Casale to the French.—Revue Historique.

Ravages of Locusts in Cyprus.

One reads of plagues of locusts, but it is difficult to realize what a terrible infliction an invasion of these ravens pests can be. Mr. J. E. Mavrocorato of the civil service, Cyprus, has made the subject of how best to destroy, or at least to decrease, their numbers, a special study, and the very graphic account of his experiences as related at the Colonial institute is full of interest. Cyprus in past years has suffered sorely from the ravages of locusts, and the inhabitants have at times been reduced to famine. The locust, one of the grasshopper family, is about two inches in length and increases at the rate of about 50 to 1 annually. When the eggs are hatched, the breeding ground is covered with a densely packed mass of insects, not much larger than an ordinary ant. This mass eventually marches forward, consuming every green blade on its route. This goes on till, arriving at their full size, the creatures take to their wings, and wherever they settle devastation is complete.—Westminster Gazette.

Everybody Ready to Dicker.

Many years ago, in central Maine, a man started out to sell oilcloth table covers throughout the country at 50 cents a cover. After traveling all day without selling one a happy thought struck him. He would charge a dollar and take half the pay in cast off shoes. The result was that people imagined they were getting some return from their old shoes, and there was a general ransacking of attics, and table covers went like hot cakes. But the old shoes? Well, wherever he found a convenient hole beside the road, out of sight, he pulled up his cart and dumped the lot.—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

A Clean Collar

One that you can keep clean all the time—a collar that does not wilt when you get over-heated; that does not fray on the edge, or tear out at the buttonholes, and can be cleaned by simply wiping off with a wet sponge or cloth. These collars and cuffs are made by covering linen collars or cuffs on both sides with waterproof "celluloid," thus giving strength and durability. They are the only waterproof goods so made, and every piece is stamped as follows:

TRADE MARK.

CELLULOID

Ask for this, and refuse to take any imitation if you expect satisfaction. If your dealer does not keep them, send direct to us, enclosing amount, and we will mail you sample. Collars 25c. each. Cuffs 50c. pair. Satisfaction, and whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

Well Digger Overcome With Gas Under Ground

And is Drawn Out in an Unconscious Condition—Joseph Goodwin's Narrow Escape

This afternoon about 1:30 o'clock Joe Goodwin, deceased into a 35 foot well he and Chas. Schrider had almost completed on J. U. Baumgardner's lot at the extreme end of west North street, to take out some boards, which had fallen down the two foot sewer pipe with which the well was cased.

There was a large dow of gas from the well and his partner as well as Mr. Baumgardner and M. L. Seibling, who was doing some carpenter work, advised him not to make the descent, but he went down in a bucket suspended from a rope attached to a windlass. He had been down only a few minutes when one of the men called to him but got no response and started to draw him out. About half way up Goodwin fell over unconscious and was so wedged that he could not be lifted higher. Finally he rallied and was brought to the surface almost dead. He was laid out on the ground and Gracjan's ambulance and Dr. Kahle summoned and the sick man removed to his home on east Vine street. His condition is not regarded serious.

HON. JNO. B. PEASLEE,

The Democratic Candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, in Lima.

Yesterday afternoon, Mr. John B. Peaslee, of Cincinnati, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, was in the city for a few hours between trains, enroute from Van Wert, to Dayton, where he spoke last evening. During a brief conversation with Mr. Peaslee, he remarked to the TIMES-DEMOCRAT that it was his firm and positive belief that the state would go Democratic in November by a handsome majority. He has been all over the state and finds the Democracy on the alert everywhere. There will be no stay-at-home Democrats this year. Mr. Peaslee further said that in conversation he had recently had with ex-Governor Campbell that gentleman said that during his entire political experience while making several Congressional campaigns and two gubernatorial campaigns, he had never had such enthusiastic meetings. With the returning prosperity which is attending the adoption of the Democratic tariff laws people have renewed confidence in the cause of Democracy. Add to this the disgust which every honest man feels regarding the corruption of the last Legislature, with the enormous tax burdens which it imposed upon the people, that will drive hundreds of Republicans to vote the Democratic ticket, and you have a few potent reasons why the State will go Democratic this fall.

BROKEN WIRE

Causes Damage to the Public this Morning.

About 10 o'clock this morning one of the small anchor wires running across the public square to support the street railway trolley wires, broke in two, and the result came near being a serious accident.

One part of the broken wire fell across the trolley wires and the end dropped down within a few feet of the ground, narrowly missing the driver of a sprinkling wagon, and landed on the double-tired of the wagon between the driver and his team. As it fell the wire knocked the lines from the driver's hands and that individual sprang from his elevated seat badly frightened but uninjured.

The electric current from the trolley wires was conducted by the broken wire and everything with which it came in contact was burnt.

The other end of the wire dropped to the sidewalk on the east side of the square and hung for a long time dangling from among a number of electric lights wires.

Fortunately no one came in contact with the dangerous wires in such a manner as to be injured, but it was an hour later before they were removed.

NOTHING IN IT.

Mrs. Mooney Brands the Chloroform Story as False.

EDITOR TIMES-DEMOCRAT: I have just received an article published in the Gazette, stating that I had chloroformed my husband and fled to Kentucky, and had left him for good, which I deny, from the fact my husband and I were on agreeable terms at the time I left, but I was offended by a member of the family making the remark that I had better go back to Kentucky where I belonged. So I packed at once and left the following morning. It is a fact my husband did not know I was going to leave for I knew if I told him I would be prevented from coming and I felt I was not welcome another day in the house by the person who owns the same.

The chloroform story is a fabrication invented by our servant. On the evening that I was packing I remarked to the girl that if my husband should awaken he would prevent me from leaving; upon which she replied, "Chloroform him," or words to that effect. I was shocked at her bold scheme as she was so young and seemingly so innocent, and I could not reply at once, and when I did reply I told her I had no such article in the house and had never used it in all my life for any purpose. She told me she had a bottle if I wanted it and went and brought it to me. I took it, looked at the label and asked her what she had the drug for. She said she used it in case of tooth ache. She told me several different ways to use the drug to make my husband sleep soundly. She insisted that it was perfectly harmless. I would have returned it to her, but seeing she knew so much about it I thought it best to not return it while she remained in that house, and I concealed it without using it or having any intention of doing so. My friends can interview my husband who is at present at Spencer-ville, O., if they are not satisfied in regard to the matter.

A GUSHER

Drilled in on the Tapscott Farm Saturday Night.

Flowed all day Sunday and is considered good for one hundred and fifty barrels per day—other new wells.

One of the best oil wells that has been completed in this territory for several years has been drilled in by the Thompson Oil Co. on the Tapscott farm, just east of the old Manhattan refinery farm, about three miles east of the city. The well is in the east Lima pool and has caused another vigorous scramble for territory in that portion of the field. The new well was drilled in Saturday night and made a very strong flow when first completed and then continued flowing at intervals all day Sunday and that night. Men were busy all day Sunday preparing tanks to receive the oil, and it is not yet possible to tell exactly what the capacity of the well really is. However, it is undoubtedly the best well in the east Lima pool and is considered good for 150 barrels a day.

The same company completed two other new wells Saturday night—one on the Blaser farm and one on the Thompson farm. The well on the Blaser farm made a strong showing of salt water and is not considered a very good producer. The new Thompson well is being pumped and may make a fair producer.

GOOD OIL WELL.

Crow Bros. drilled in a good oil well New Years day on Orin Crow's 80-acre tract on the west side of the Auglaize river, three miles northwest of this city. The well was tubed Saturday noon and started to pumping and up to Monday noon it had put 100 barrels of oil in the tank. Fifty-barrel wells pay fairly well even at the low price of oil. We congratulate the boys on their good fortune.—Wapakoneta Republican.

It was in favor of the Central Trust company, of New York, and to secure a loan to construct a pipe line to Indianapolis through Anderson, from the pumping station near Red Key, a distance of 75 miles.

POLICE NEWS.

Ed Heckethorn Sent to Jail by Justice Mowen.

FINED FOR STEALING COAL.

He Couldn't Pay the Fine and was Sent to the County Jail—A Stranger Locked up for Safe Keeping—Other Cases.

Early Monday morning while making his regular rounds through the C. H. & D. yards, night watchman Reeves detected Ed Heckethorn in the act of stealing coal from a car on a side track between Highland and North streets. Heckethorn was arrested, locked up in the city prison, and about 10 o'clock detective Wiles and officer Reeves took the case before Justice Mowen, charging the prisoner with petit larceny.

When arraigned before Justice Mowen, Heckethorn pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to a fine of $5 and costs. He had no money with which to settle, and was committed to jail in default.

FAILED TO LEAVE TOWN.

Saturday night a tough looking individual, who claims to belong at Connersville, Pa., was locked up at the police station for safe keeping. He was released Monday morning and was ordered to leave town, but was found at the P. F. W. & C. depot again that night. The fellow was very insulting and abused everyone with whom he came in contact. He was locked up again and refused to give any account of himself when taken before Chief Bell. He is still a prisoner.

NEITHER FRIENDS NOR MONEY.

A man giving his name as John McDonald, who was locked up Monday for drunkenness, was arraigned before Mayor Baxter next morning. When asked where he had gotten the liquor he drank Monday, he informed the mayor that he had not purchased any, but had drank from a bottle which another man had. He said he had been working on the Lima Northern, but had been laid off, and had neither friends nor money. He was released upon a promise to leave town immediately.

RELIGIOUS MEETING DISTURBED.

A man named McMillen made complaint at the police station Sunday against William Corrigan, whom he charged with having disturbed a religious meeting in Stame's hall, on east Market street. Corrigan was arrested by Lieut. Wingate and then released, with instructions to appear before the mayor this morning. He did not appear this morning on account of sickness, and was instructed to appear later.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

An Iron Casting Falls on the Foot of a C. H. & D. Carpenter.

J. W. Weaver, an employee in the carpenter department of the C. H. & D. shops, met with an unfortunate accident Saturday afternoon. He was at work in the North Lima yards repairing an old box car. He was engaged in removing a heavy draft timber and an iron butler. As he loosened the last bolt that held them in place, they dropped, and the upper, weighing about one hundred pounds, fell on his foot and injured it badly. The flesh on the instep was cut and bruised and the fifth metatarsal bone was broken.

He was taken to his home at 715 west Wayne street, and Dr. Kahle, the company's physician, dressed the injured parts. It will be several days before he will be able to resume his work.

An Effort to Reform.

Before sending any more missionaries to heathen countries, a little work of this character is needed right here in Lima. For the past few years the clothing business in Lima has become degraded to such an extent as to bring it below the standard of other merchandising. This evil can be laid at the door of a few clothiers only, though in this case, as well as in other cases, the innocent must suffer with the guilty ones. The writer of this article has referred to the methods these few clothiers resort to in advertising in their frantic efforts to sell their goods. Other merchants, such as dry goods, hardware, &c., prosper as well as clothiers, without using fraudulent and scheming tricks in advertising. The writer approves of advertising, but only in a legitimate manner, no fakes. Where will this end if one merchant advertises "a fire sale" without a fire; another advertises "a bankrupt sale" without a shadow of a bankrupt; or "a going out of business sale" without any such intentions whatever, except an attempt to humbug the public? The writer would shrink from advertising that he had to vacate his store in 60 days, when in fact it could not be vacated except by paying a 3 years unexpired lease at $1,200.00 a year. These few clothiers must certainly have a poor opinion of the judgment of Allen county citizens. They must think no one except themselves have any brains. Can't the clothing business be kept on a level with other business as it used to be not many years ago?

A SPEED TEST.

Last week a test was made of speed on the New York Central, under the direction of superintendent of motive power Buchanan, to ascertain how much the speed of trains could be increased, and what the extra increase in expense would be. Engine No. 925 and a train of eight cars were used in the test and two engineers, A. Lippincott and F. H. Ely, made the trip, riding on the front of the engine and protected by a shield. It was found that 512 horse power was developed on each side of the engine. A speed of seventy-eight miles an hour was made just above Hudson and kept up for twenty miles. In several places along the division a speed of 83.7 miles per hour was attained.

PERSONAL MAINTENANCE BILL.

Frank Sargent is at Albany, N. Y., lobbying for a bill to provide for the maintenance of the employees of railroad corporations who are injured in the discharge of their duty. He has succeeded in interesting Assemblyman Bondy, of Syracuse, who will introduce the bill in the assembly. Mr. Sargent is chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen.

F. E. FISHER'S MOTHER DEAD.

F. E. Fisher, of the Ohio Southern railroad, received a telegram yesterday afternoon stating that his mother had died at her home in St. Louis of apoplexy.—Springfield Sun.

GOOD FOR EXPRESS COMPANIES.

Agent Ed Hiner, of the Ohio Southern, informed a representative of the Times-Democrat Thursday of an important rate that was recently adopted in the railroad freight departments and went into effect January 1st. Heretofore the rate charged for all small packages of light weight shipped by freight has been 25 cents per package, but under the new rule mentioned no package, no matter how small, will be received as freight for less than 35 cents.

This increase in the small package freight rate will, in all probability, make a decided increase in the number of small packages sent by express and will equally decrease freight traffic of this kind, as in most cases such packages may be sent by express for 35 cents. It is possible that the increase in the freight rate has been made for the purpose of driving to the express companies the greater portion of small-package patronage, as much inconvenience has resulted from handling the parcels in the freight departments.

C. H. & D. IMPROVEMENTS.

The C. H. & D. railway is still adding to its equipment, having just received from the shops a new passenger coach, with double plate glass dust proof windows and observation vestibules. This coach went into service on the Cincinnati, Toledo and Detroit run yesterday; also, coaches No. 16 and 130 have just been received from the shops, thoroughly overhauled and as good as new.

NAPOLEON AND THE L. N.

Last week representatives of the Lima Northern R. R. failing to purchase additional land from the Vocke Bros., leased of them the seven-acre tract which lies immediately east of the railroad track, between the Wash road and the canal. This property will be used as a "Y" and a turn table, and when completed all trains will change engines at this point. This move on the part of the Lima Northern makes it almost certain that Napoleon will eventually be made a division point, which will be of great importance to our beautiful and growing little city in more ways than one. When we are made a division terminus, all train crews will become residents of Napoleon, which will increase our population not a little.

No doubt the managers of the Lima Northern see a bright future for Napoleon, and they are determined to do what they can to set the wheels of progress in motion and assist in building up the place. They see the advantage Napoleon has over other

RICH HARVESTS

Have Been Reaped in Northwestern Ohio.

NOT HARVESTS OF GRAIN,

But of the Precious Amber Fluid—Interesting Statistics Concerning the Lima Oil Fields During the Past Year.

Some fifteen years ago, when, on the western bank of Hog creek, at the Lima paper mills, the first crude oil producing well known in the history of northwestern Ohio was drilled, no one knew and but few imagined the vast expanse of the great and valuable lake of crude petroleum which lay beneath this very important quarter of the Buckeye state. That venture resulted in the rapid and substantial growth and importance of Lima and northwestern Ohio which many future years could not have acquired but for this great hidden lake of precious amber fluid, from which so many fortunes have been made and a few lost since the day of venture which marked an epoch in Lima's now important history. The great discovery was sure to be made, sooner or later, but to Mr. Faurot is due credit for developing this field at the time when the great boom was most beneficial and in advance of the discoveries since made in surrounding counties, thereby making Lima the center of attraction and bringing to its borders the great Solar refinery and many other institutions of smaller capacity, but of great importance, that possibly would have been located elsewhere under different circumstances. With a town of less than 7,000 people prior to the development of the oil territory, the city now prides herself of a population of about 20,000 people, and an importance that is known throughout the civilized world.

A Toledo correspondent to the Cincinnati Enquirer furnishes some very valuable statistics concerning the northwestern Ohio oil field, among which the following is of special interest:

"The northwestern field for the year just closed has proved a success financially in all its branches. Those who have been fortunate enough to have visited the great oil fields during the year and observed the activity attendant upon every hand realize that operations have been conducted upon an enormous scale, and that regardless of the close times an army of workmen is employed throughout the entire field.

The official reports from time to time furnish an important method of measuring the progress of all the work. The industry has proved a pronounced help to the farmer in the great oil belt. It has in nearly every instance proved a veritable gold mine to him, and where old richly hoarded stoods several years ago are now beautiful modern structures, and all are due to the discovery of crude oil. The majority of these farmers have become wealthy, and many are now engaged in active operations and developments in the field on their own account.

But very few people are aware of the great number of wells that have been sunk in the Northwestern Ohio oil field since the completion of the first oil well at Lima some 15 years ago. The counties in which the field consists is as follows: Wood, Hancock, Allen, Auglaize, Sandusky, Lucas, Mercer, Van Wert, Seneca, Wyandot and the miscellaneous counties of Ottawa, Henry, Williams, Putnam, Paulding, Defiance, Darke, Logan, Hardin and Fulton, making in all 20. In these counties there have been 27,299 wells completed. They are distributed as follows, showing the number in each county listed:

Counties.	Completed Wells.	Completed Wells.
Wood.....	3,930	Van Wert.....	175
Hancock.....	3,995	Seneca.....	253
Allen.....	1,790	Wyandot.....	277

Fifty Years Ago.

Who could imagine that this should be the place where, in eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, the world-wonder of arch and dome should shadow the nations, polychrome... Here at the Fair was the prize conferred on Ayer's Pills, by the world preferred Chicago-like, they a record show, since they started—50 years ago.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

have, from the time of their preparation, been a continuous success with the public. And that means that Ayer's Pills accomplish what is promised for them; they cure where others fail. It was fitting, therefore, that the world-wide popularity of these pills should be recognized by the World's Fair medal of 1893—a fact which emphasizes the record:

50 Years of Cures.

Analgesic.....3,363 Miscellaneous.....1,023
Cathartic.....4,499 Total.....7,860
Laxative.....3,363
Mercurial.....2,125
Of the above total list 4,186 were dry wells, leaving a total of 23,113 producing wells.

STREET TALK.

"I'm never going to speak to that Freddie—again, as long as I live," said little Willard—, of west Market street, to his fond mother the other day. It was only a short time after this, however, when little Freddie was seen engaged in a very friendly conversation with the boy he had referred to. "I thought you were never going to speak to Freddie again," said his mother. "Well, but mama, he's got peanuts," replied Willard. The state fish and game commission is about to commence the distribution of Moussoulin ring neck and English pheasants, the finest game birds in the world. They were raised in the Celina pheasantry. The commission, in accordance with a state law, will pay a reward of $50 for information that will convict anyone of shooting, killing or molesting them before November 15, 1899.

Company A, Second Regiment, O. N. G., of Findlay, on Wednesday night took a vote on the question of whether or not they should attend the inauguration of President-elect McKinley, on March 4 next, and decided the question in the affirmative. This, of course, is on condition that the Second Regiment decides to go. There have been all sorts of ineffectual methods proposed to abolish cigarettes, but none so promising as that of Reformer Pingree, of Michigan. "I believe," says Governor-elect and Mayor Pingree, "that a law ought to be passed to put to jail not only the one that sells cigarettes, but the one that is caught smoking them. If they pass such a bill I'll sign it."

The deadly danger which lurks in a topical ointment has once again been illustrated. A young Van Wert man sang, "I Want Yer, Ma Honey, Yes I Do," while his mother's colored washerwoman was at work in a laundry, and now the colored lady has sued him for breach of promise.
